Opening of the cause of Fr Willie Doyle World War I chaplain who volunteered as a military chaplain and served from late 1915 until his death in August 1917. He was killed during the Battle of Passchendaele while rescuing two wounded Anglican soldiers from Ulster.

His heroism during the war, as well as the holiness of his life in general, led to an outpouring of devotion to him in the years after his death. By the early 1930's over 50,000 letters testifying to devotion to him were received, over 6,000 of which alleged favours and healings through his intercession.

You are invited to pray for the advancement of his canonisation and to seek the intercession of Fr Willie Doyle. begins with Evening Prayer in the Cathedral of Christ the King, Mullingar on November 20 at 5pm. All welcome! See www.williedoyle.org #SharingFaith
